

Nursery Production Worker

Eagle Lake Nurseries Ltd. is an established company that has been a leader in the Prairie Nursery Industry for over 50 years. We serve and sell plant materials to commercial and residential landscapers, garden centers, municipalities, golf courses, and homeowners across Western Canada and several northern US states.

At Eagle Lake Nurseries, we are a community committed to growing plants and the people who nurture them. You would be joining a highly collaborative team that works together in providing the best product and customer service possible. We are looking for individuals that wants be part of a team in a highly diverse agriculture company, with a proven success record, that plans to continue to grow, by executing innovative and future-thinking initiatives.

This position requires a flexible person who is willing to learn and do a variety of tasks.

Key Responsibilities

- Plant maintenance, including watering, weeding, moving container plants, pruning, applying fertilizer & pest control products, etc.
- Potting trees, shrubs, and perennials
- Planting seedlings and rooted cuttings
- Field planting and harvesting
- Assist with loading and unloading trucks
- Assist with inventory of container and field – grown plants
- Equipment operation
- Assist with Clean Plants certification program
- Other duties as assigned

Required Qualifications

- Willing to learn new tasks and work in a team environment
- Ability to stand and walk for long periods of time
- Ability to lift up to 50 lbs and perform work outdoors in all weather conditions
- Valid Class 5 drivers' licence
- Compliance with company policies and participation in COR safety program

Applicants require their own transportation to our rural address located 5 kilometers east of Strathmore, AB.

Position is full time seasonal. We offer a competitive wage based on experience.

If you are interested in working outdoor and enjoy physical work, please forward your resume to sam@eaglelakenurseries.com